

Could you give people of faith the chance to enable an ex-prisoner to make a fresh start?

Basic Caring Communities Service Manager

- £27,880 – 29,510 inc. London Weighting ( depending on skills and exercise)
- 40 hours per week.
- 6% employer pension contribution
- 30 days annual leave

This post is offered on a flexible working arrangement due to the need for regular evening and weekend work.

Could you help us expand and develop our innovative 'Basic Caring Communities' resettlement programme for men leaving prisons in London?

Do you understand the challenges facing people being released from prison, the roles of the prison and probation services, and how to manage risk? Can you support and empower volunteers who are motivated by their Christian faith to make a difference and offer ex-prisoners who want to avoid re-offending?

Your role will be to recruit, select, train and support volunteers to work in small groups, befriending, supporting and accompanying ex-offenders during the first three months after release. You will also support our new projects in Greater Manchester and the Bristol area, and work as part of a wider pact team. This role involves building partnerships with Prison Chaplaincy teams, and prison and probation staff, at Wandsworth, Brixton and Pentonville prisons, and with local church and parish groups.

This is challenging, vocational work, but ultimately hugely rewarding for the right person. If you share our values, and feel that this is what you might be called to do, call us today.

Closing date for application: Friday 3rd February 2012 (4pm)

It is hoped that interviews will be held: Thursday 23rd February 2012
